

STP Online: Now You Try It!

Week One – Web Publishing

Your assignment this week is to create a website to use as a part of your curriculum. Choose one of the following four options:

1. Create a website using Weebly. Create a sample website that contains the following four pages complete with content.
 - a. About Me: This page should have a short biography about you and include a photo.
 - b. Homework Page: Share at least three assignments/topics and include useful links students can use as helps (ie – if your assignment deals with current events you should include a link to cnn.com or some news source).
 - c. Schedule: Share a schedule of the current week’s activities.
 - d. Handouts: Upload at least 4 documents to share with students.

2. Create a Blog using Blogger. Create a sample blog that contains the following items.
 - a. At least 5 posts that relate to activities you would use with students. These should each contain an image.
 - b. A Link List, which contains links to three educational blogs or websites.
 - c. A Poll about a topic related to your curriculum or school.

3. Create a classroom website using myUEN. Create a sample website that contains the following four elements with content.
 - a. Homework Page: Share at least three assignments/topics and include useful links students can use as helps (ie – if your assignment deals with current events you should include a link to cnn.com or some news source).
 - b. Schedule: Share a schedule of the current week’s activities.
 - c. Handouts: Upload at least 4 documents to share with students.
 - d. A classroom poll about a topic related to your curriculum or school.

4. Reflect on the importance of having a classroom website. You should answer the questions in the Web Publishing Reflection in a 1-2 page document. Remember you can only use the reflection option three times throughout the course.
